Your Life Path Number represents the path you should take through life and the talents and skills you have to make your journey a rewarding one.

Your Path will lead you to build a warm home life and a stable, rewarding career. You live responsibly and learn to maintain a balance between what you give and what you receive. You are sympathetic, caring and able to give good counsel. These are qualities others will come to you for many times in your life. You see the beauty in the world and in those around you--enjoy your vision.

Your Life Destiny Number is 3

Bringing beauty, color, happiness, and pleasure into the lives of others is your path in life. You possess a natural sense of harmonious rhythm which enables you to express yourself freely and fluently.

Musical, artistic, or gifted with the spoken or written word, you should develop and refine your inherent creativity.

Your sense of humor, cheerfulness, congeniality, and ability to make friends wherever you go are also wonderful assets which will aid you in whatever field you choose. Your friends, and even people who don't know you but who respond to your warmth and enthusiasm, are always ready to help you, and you find that life seems to be on your side, opportunities and benefits flow your way. Since you attract so much so easily, you may become averse to real effort and hard work, but you need to develop discipline and focus if your creative potentials are to blossom fully. Your love of romance, play, and pleasure are both advantages and disadvantages. It's great to know how to play and enjoy life, but try not to fritter away all your time.

Your Soul Number is 8

There is nothing small or modest about your ambitions and you have the drive to achieve the recognition and material success that you are aiming for. You dream of rising above the common crowd to reach the pinnacle of success, becoming a person of influence, responsibility, and power. Strong-willed and determined, you will persevere and overcome all obstacles on the way to your desired goals. You are a natural executive, possessing organizational talents and the ability to manage large-scale operations in the commercial world. You enjoy the challenge of "playing in the big league".

Your emotions and personal life generally take a back seat to your striving for professional advancement and material goals.

You can be a strong power for good in the world if you do not fall into the trap of mere personal ambition and self-aggrandizement.

Your Personality Number is 22

Your Personality Number reveals the "external you"--the personality traits others will know you by.

You have the Master Number 22 as your Personality Number. Master Numbers indicate nearly complete or complete development of the traits associated with the number they would reduce to. This relation is usually expressed by writing the Master Number and the number it reduces to together. Master Number 22 is often written 22/4.

Freedom and responsibility come with having a Master Number. You have the freedom to choose whether to allow your Master Number traits to express themselves or not. If you opt to act responsibly and use your lofty powers, you will find your reward is in the choice itself. If you choose to ignore your talents, you may find yourself taking more than one step back. You may incur a Karmic Debt. Your aura of competence often makes you appear to be superhuman. You are stable, trustworthy and loyal. You possess lofty ideals and the organizational talents as well as energy to make your ideals into realities. Whether they are political structures or massive buildings or master artworks, you want to sculpt things which will benefit mankind long into the future.

Your Maturity Number is 9

Your Maturity Number reveals the person you will come to be--your true self.

Persons with a 9 Maturity Number do not always have an easy path before them. They must learn to balance their love for humanity with their own needs. Throughout your life you will heal and enlighten those around you. In your later years you will have mastered your healing techniques and learned to apply your compassion for others effectively. You will be able to look upon your life and see that you have been a great benefit to most who have had the good fortune to know you.

Your Balance Number is 4

As long as your life is on an even or uplifting keel balance numbers are relatively dormant. However, in those times when your life is out of order your Balance Number can become central to resolving the turmoil you are experiencing. Your Balance Number reflects the traits you need to bring to the forefront in order the get through difficult periods with the least amount of damage or time wasted on negative influences.

A 4 Balance Number denotes a real need for self control during stressful times. Regardless of how devastating your losses may be, this is not time for you to unleash your anger or vent emotionally. Seek compromise. Do not over-inflate the severity of the situation. Do not allow yourself to get mired in details which may not be all that important. What you need to see clearly is how things are overall. Seek fairness and be fair yourself.

The 4 Pinnacles

Pinnacles represent moments in your life in which you realize current goals and learn some of life's lessons. If you are at the beginning of a Pinnacle, then they can be used as a predictive tool to assist in managing your future. Your first Pinnacle begins at birth and last until around the age of 27. Your Second Pinnacle last through the next 9 year and the Third Pinnacle last for 9 years after the Second Pinnacle has passed. Your Fourth Pinnacle picks up where the Third Pinnacle ends and last throughout the rest of your life

Your First Pinnacle Number is 5

A number 5 Pinnacle is a time of change. This is period in which you will cast off restraints and develop your personal freedom. You will learn to be flexible and adaptable, to hold your ground and not run from the changes which confront you. A number 5 Pinnacle is a time of change. You will learn to be flexible and adaptable, to hold your ground and not run from the changes which confront you.

Your Fourth Pinnacle Number is 4

You are in a period where you should be building a solid foundation on which to carry on your life. You may be building a home, family or career. Whatever you are doing, it is not a time in which you will or should take it easy.

The 4 Challenges

Challenges denote personal weaknesses and temptations you will have to overcome and strengths you will have to develop to fully realize your goals. The 4 Challenges have the same time frame as the 4 Pinnacles.

faith in your convictions. If the number 1 appears as your first Challenge you are learning to define your self. Should a 1 appear in your other Challenges you are learning to remain true to your self and become more confident.

Your Second Challenge Number is 8

An 8 Challenge denotes a period when you are being called to come to the forefront and lead others. You will be tested by material gains, and must remember your true destiny is to contribute significant accomplishments to your world. To traverse this Challenge successfully you will have to learn not to misuse the power that is entrusted to you.

Your Third Challenge Number is 7

A 7 Challenge always marks a very serious period in your life. This period will be marked by intense introspection and the pursuit of spiritual wisdom. Your challenge will be to move through this period of self-discovery while dealing with the isolation such inner journeys often cause. Also you will have to learn to differentiate reality from fantasy.

The 3 Cycles

Cycles occur in 28 year periods. The First Cycle last from birth through your 28th year and is called your Formative or Seed Cycle. The Second Cycle--your Productive or Fruit Cycle--begins at age 29 and last through your 56th year. The Third Cycle, your Harvest Cycle, begins with the coming of your 57th year and last throughout the rest of your life. Your Cycle Numbers tell you the lessons you must learn and goals you must meet to stay on your Life's Path and achieve your true destiny.

Your First Cycle Number is 3

Your emphasis during this Cycle will be on unleashing your creativity. You will need to focus your energies to get all you can from this Cycle. The reward for traversing this Cycle successfully is a life full of friends and the coming to fruition of your creative talents.

Your Second Cycle Number is 2

If you are in a 2 Cycle you are going to develop at a slow, even pace. Your talents for peacemaking and gentle persuasion will come into play often. Understanding relationships will be your main goal in this period. Should this be your Third Cycle, patience and diplomacy will be the characteristics of this Cycle.

Your Third Cycle Number is 1

A 1 Cycle indicates a time of action and development. If your First Cycle number is a 1, you are gaining independence and confidence. There may be times when you feel alienated from those around you. A 1 in the Second Cycle reflects a time when you will be confident, determined and able to lead others. A Third Cycle 1 indicates a time in which you will be independent and dynamic. You will be very independent and self-discovery will be a major preoccupation.

Your Karmic Lesson Number(s) are/is 3 4 6 8

Karmic Lesson numbers reveal areas in which we need to grow. To become more complete, we need to give extra attention to these areas in this lifetime. If one of your 5 core numbers is the same as a Karmic Lesson Number the significance of the Karmic Lesson Number is reduced.

A 3 Karmic Lesson Number often reflects a person who is far too hard on themselves. Make an effort to not judge your performance too harshly. The number 3 appears in your core numbers, so the the importance of this number is lessened.

A 4 Karmic Lesson Number is indicative of a need for direction in life. Although you may feel somewhat confused about why you are here, work to find your true path through this life.

A 6 Karmic Lesson Number denotes an inability or reluctance to make commitments. Even when you do commit yourself to something it may be your nature to hold back any true passion for the commitment or relationship. Over time you might do well to slowly allow your passions to express themselves and put your heart into your commitments and relationships.

The number 6 appears in your core numbers, so the the importance of this number is lessened.

A 8 Karmic Lesson Number points to a talent for making money that is not properly governed. You may experience tremendous swings in your financial status. This is because while you know how to make money, you also tend to be way too speculative and impulsive when dealing with matters of finance. Try and develop a more cautious approach to money matters and it is possible these swings in fortune will diminish.

The number 8 appears in your core numbers, so the the importance of this number is lessened.

Your Lucky Number is 3

Your Personal Lucky Number does not change. This number will be lucky for you your entire life. Your luck derived from this number will be strongest when you are addressing events and issues related to the general meaning of the number. Lucky Numbers should not be relied on to constantly produce positive results, or make impulsive, high risk gambles. They simply mean that where they appear you have an edge. How large an edge is impossible to determine, but seems to increase with the number of occurrences your Lucky Number is be associated with a given event or issue.

Those with a Personal Lucky Number 3 are indeed very lucky. The 3 is considered by many to be the luckiest number of all. Your 3 will benefit you most in situations requiring creativity and original solutions. The 3 is also a great money and love number. Just remember that as powerful as your 3 is, it is still not wise to take impulsive risks. That is, don't bet your savings on a horse just because it is wearing the number 3 and in the 3 post position. The horse still needs to be able to run!

Your Signature Number is a 9

Signature numbers are based on how you sign your name. Your signature carries the power and the faults of one of the base 9 numbers. You may actually want to sign different documents with different signatures to reap the benefit of a particular number. For instance, if you are signing an agreement of partnership you might want to alter your signature to reflect the powers of the number 2.

The signature you entered is a 9. The 9 signature is best suited to mark the completion of contracts or payment plans or the giving of donations.

Your Birthday Number is 2

This number is most influential between your 28th and 56th year. While it is not the most important number in your profile, it does have an effect on your Life's Path and Destiny.

You understand the need for cooperation and enjoy the company of others. You do well in a group setting and have the ability to maintain harmony within your crowd.

Your Personal Year Number is 3

This number tells you what is happening in your life this year. This number should be used to help you avoid setbacks and focus your energies on those areas of your life where you are most likely to achieve your goals.

While the number 3 is about joy and fun, it does not mean that this will be that type of year for you. This is time when you should learn to speak from your heart. This can prove to be a painful experience, but once it is past the fun and joy should begin for you.

Your Personal Month Number is 5

This number tells you what is happening in your life this month. Use this number in the same way you would your Personal year number, but apply it only to the current month.

This is a good month in which to embrace change, take a few risks, and explore new directions in your life.

Your Foundation Letter is B

You have a soft, gracious, hospitable manner and are easily influenced by kindness, consideration, and emotional appeals. Though you appear stable and calm, both praise and blame from others affects you strongly and you are sensitive to criticism. You are diplomatic and you strive to please.

You prefer to work in cooperation with others rather than on your own, and have a strong desire for marriage and partnerships. Close family ties give you a sense of security. Your home is very, very important to you.

You love material comfort and have a talent for accumulating money. You can save and squirrel away your earnings and do not easily let go of anything once it is in your possession. You can be a hoarder who never throws anything away.

You are more instinctive and emotional than intellectual. Negatively, you can be stubbornly opinionated and overly simplistic in your thinking.

Your End Letter is Y

Having a Y End Letter identifies someone who can see a project or venture through to the end, but may flounder if hampered by too many rules or partners.

Your First Vowel is I

Your instinctive response to any situation is INTUITIVE DISCRIMINATION. You act according to your intuitive sense of a situation, and may seem entirely illogical and impervious to rational argument. You are sensitive and intelligent, with the ability to perceive and understand subtleties and complex issues.

You are sympathetic, idealistic, and have a strong humanitarian impulse. You can be overly subjective, overly sensitive and emotional. You avoid confrontation as much as possible, and are sensitive to criticism and rejection.

You are also inspired intellectually or artistically and require a supportive atmosphere in which to develop these gifts.
